DECLARATION – CHILD PROTECTION

All posts involving direct contact with vulnerable children are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are ‘protected’. These are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Disclosure and Barring Service website.

Have you ever been convicted of a criminal offence which is not ‘protected’ YES/NO

If you have answered ‘yes’, please supply details of all convictions in a sealed envelope marked ‘confidential’ and attach to this form. If your application is successful, this information will be checked against information from the Disclosure and Barring Service before your appointment is confirmed.

Under new legislation we may not allow people to work at St Piran’s or be directly concerned in its management if they or others in their household are ‘disqualified’.

The grounds for disqualification are not only that a person is barred from working with children (included on the children’s barred list) but also require you to answer the following:

- Have you, or any in your household been cautioned for, convicted of or charged with certain violent and sexual criminal offences against children and adults, at home or abroad?
YES/NO
- Have other orders been made against you, or any in your household in relation to your care of children?
YES/NO
- Have you, or any in your household had your registration cancelled in relation to childcare or children’s homes or have you or others in your household been disqualified from private fostering?
YES/NO
- Are you living in the same household where another person, who is disqualified, lives?
YES/NO

(Disqualification occurs as soon as one of the above criteria are met, for example, as soon as a caution or conviction occurs, even before the person is formally included on the children’s barred list).
