Two very different games on a lovely large pitch. The boys in the first game didn't really play to their true ability and only played in parts. Their performance in the first game against Papplewick was certainly out of character compared to previous games; they lacked the ability to chase players and hassle for the ball, their hunger to win the ball back just wasn't there and neither was their awareness of the opponents. However the second game was totally different and they dominated the game, actually learning from their mistakes and were switched on. The defence dropped deeper so no balls could go over their heads and get caught out. It really showed that they listened and took on board all the information they were given. Unlucky boys in the first game, but really well done for bouncing back.
