Team: J. Davies-Carr, A. Hussain, A.Harris, D. Willings, Ca. Cottom, Ci. Cottom, F. Bannatyne On a beautifully manicured field, under driving rain that dogged the afternoon, the triangular series began with a loss against Crosfields. Although playing the more attractive football there were too many lapses in concentration and a lack of desire to take the battle to the other team, and an unwillingness to engage. Mercifully, this was remedied in the second match where the boys played very well. They took the opportunity to break against a fairly static defence, although the term 'defence' may be too strong a word at this level, where most of the football is played in an all-comers-festival atmosphere! Jasper and Finlay each scored a goal, and Ali Hussain was like the Rock of Gibraltar, his Herculean saves maintaining the dignity of the team. However, like the Rock itself, he had to rely on some early intervention from his Allies but in the first match that was somewhat missing. Things did, as I mentioned, take a turn for the better. I think that everyone had a very good afternoon, and match tea (chicken nuggets and chips) was tasty, with a Freddos for dessert.
